

KENTUCKY TRIBUNE

JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON—EDITORS.

DANVILLE, KY.
FRIDAY, AUG. 24, 1855.

FOURTH DISTRICT.—The full official vote of this District has at last been received, and the majority for Col. Talbot is 15 votes. We have heard it rumored that the election would be contested, and the Louisville Journal states (we do not know on what authority) that such a contest will be pursued. We know that many friends of Major Fox, believing that he has been beaten by illegal votes, are strongly urging him to contest the election, but whether or not he will yield to their persuasions, we are not prepared to say. We hear of several counties in which it is confidently asserted that numbers of clearly illegal votes were polled against us, and the friends of Major Fox are perfectly sanguine that the fact of their illegality can be fully established.

The following is the official vote of the district, as published by the Frankfort Commonwealth:

Morhead.	Clarke.	Fox.	Talbot.
Boyle.	637	356	643	363
Lincoln.	627	469	869	476
Davi.	639	428	646	418
Adair.	431	912	496	935
Clinton.	286	549	299	534
Cumberland.	582	324	584	417
Greene.	476	62	465	686
Taylor.	371	611	373	561
Pulaski.	1082	1252	1103	1256
Wayne.	671	661	676	639
Russell.	493	375	495	379
	6019	6690	6571	6565
	6618		6571
Clarke's majority.	62	Talbot's maj.	15

CORRECTION.—Since we published the vote for State Senator in this District, the returns have been compared by the Sheriffs of the several counties, and the official vote announced to be as follows:

Morhead.	Clarke.	G. M. Peely.
Boyle.	715	582
Casey.	62	419
Adair.	415	939
	1762	1640
Burton's maj.	122

THE GUBERNATORIAL VOTE.—Official returns have been received at Frankfort from 100 counties, which foot up as follows:

Morhead.	Clarke.	G. M. Peely.
69,464	64,058

Morhead's majority, 5,376.

The counties remaining to be heard from, are Floyd, Letcher, and Perry, which are reported to have given Clarke a majority of 1,125.—Should their reported returns be correct, Morhead's majority in the State will be 4,251.

We have the vote for Governor and Congressmen arranged in districts, and will publish the same as soon as the full returns are received.

ANOTHER MAXMOTH TOMATO.—Mr. George W. Tribble, of Lincoln county, left at our office a day or two since, a large yellow tomato weighing 1½ pounds. This tomato is the largest we have seen the present season.

DEATH OF JUDGE FINNELL.—Benj. W. Finnell, Esq., brother-in-law to the Senior editor of this paper, died in Georgetown on Sunday last, of cholera and fever. Mr. F. at the time of his death was Presiding Judge of the Scott County Court, and had been for many years a prominent citizen of the county.

THE SOUTH DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.—The South District Association of United Baptists, met at Harrodsburg on Tuesday last, and owing to the sickness there, adjourned to meet at the same place on the 1st Tuesday in October next.

DR. BARKINIDGE'S LETTER.—We give up our first page this week to the publication of Rev. Dr. Barkinidge's letter in reply to the Abolition speech of Hon. Charles Sumner. It is needless for us to call public attention to this able document. It has already attracted much interest by the power of its argument and the soundness of its conclusions, and we presume that but few productions of the day will have a more general reading.

WHOLESALE DRY GOODS.—The attention of purchasers is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. J. W. & J. C. Cochran, of Lexington. Messrs. C. imports an immense stock of Dry Goods every season, for the wholesale trade exclusively, and those buying to sell again could not select a better house from which to make their purchases.

HATS, CAPS AND FURS.—Messrs. POLLARD, PRATHER & SMITH, (successors to P. S. Barber & Co.) Louisville, have increased their manufacturing facilities, and solicit the attention of buyers to their new fall stock. We believe the hats of their manufacture are conceded to be superior, in workmanship finish and style, while their prices are exceedingly favorable to both wholesale and retail purchasers. We recommend this deserving and enterprising firm to the liberal patronage of our mercantile friends.

FINE FURNITURE.—Mr. G. W. HEWITT has now in his warehous a highly superior stock of handsome and fashionable Furniture, and is constantly manufacturing more of the same sort. He has thrown his "banner" to the breeze, and purchasers of cabinet ware will find him well prepared to supply them with any article in that line.

BRINLEY'S PLOUGHS.—The attention of our farming readers is called to the advertisement of Mr. Brinley, which will be found in another column. The ploughs of Mr. B.'s manufacture have been so thoroughly tried, and so generally approved, that they have become widely celebrated for their superiority. Brinley's ploughs, we suppose, have received more premiums than any others ever made. They have eclipsed all the Buckeys and Yankee ploughs, and have given our State a reputation in that line, which entitles Mr. Brinley to the highest honor as an ingenious and skilful mechanist. As Mr. Brinley does not design exhibiting his implements at any of the fairs this fall, we hope other ploughsmiths will spur up and prevent the premiums awarded to such articles from being taken by mechanics from other States.

THE "ATTENTIVE CORRESPONDENT."—One of the Louisville papers writes an account of everything which occurs here, as well as some things which do not occur. For instance, he informs the editor of the paper in question, that on Tuesday night after the election, Major Fox arrived in our city, made a speech to his friends, congratulated them on his success, and thanked them for his election. The said correspondent would perhaps enjoy a clearer conscience if he would confine himself strictly to the narration of facts. On Tuesday night, 7th inst., it was believed that Major Fox was the successful candidate for Congress, though sufficient returns had not been received to render it by means certain. After night, Major F. arrived from Pulaski, and his buggy was immediately surrounded by a crowd of his friends. He merely gave them a statement of the vote in Pulaski, which was not at all encouraging to either himself or his supporters, and then thanked them for their expression of feeling in his behalf, and the exertions they had made to secure his success. This is magnified by the double-sided scribbler for the Louisville Sag-Nic press into a speech full of boasting and confidence, and we merely mention it that our readers may see the difference between the account he gave of it, and the facts in the case.

CHOLERA.—The cholera, at last accounts, is prevailing to an alarming extent in and around Lawrenceburg, and most of the citizens have deserted the town. On Sunday last there were five deaths, and thirty other persons were reported as also suffering from the disease.

There have also during the past week been three or four deaths from cholera in Harrodsburg, but we hear of no new cases for several days. The deaths are attributed to imprudence, and the disease is not thought, we believe, to be epidemic there.

The health of Lexington and Nicholasville, we understand, is completely restored, and the absent citizens have returned to their homes.

YELLOW FEVER IN VIRGINIA.—The yellow fever is still prevailing with great fatality in Portsmouth and Norfolk, Virginia. At Norfolk 3500 have reported as having occurred during the forty-eight hours ending at 2 o'clock on Monday. Many of the prominent citizens of both places have fallen victims to the scourge. Great distress prevails among the inhabitants, and large collections have been made in the surrounding cities to relieve the necessities of those who are suffering.

DEATH OF EX-GOVERNOR MICALF.—Ex-Governor Thomas Micalfe, "the old Stone Hammer," so much beloved and venerated by the people of Kentucky, is no more. He died at his residence, Forest Retreat, in Nicholas county, on Saturday evening last, in the 76th year of his age. He departed this life "full of honor and of years," having in many public stations served his countrymen with fidelity and zeal—He was first elected to the Legislature in 1813, while absent from home as captain of a company against the Indians. He served several years in the Legislature, and in 1818 was elected to Congress over Hon. Joseph Dasha. He continued an active member of that body until the year 1827 when he was chosen Governor of the state, being the candidate of the National Republican party. His opponent was Hon. W. T. Barnard, who represented the Jackson party of that day. The contest was a very close one—and Gov. Micalfe's majority was only seven hundred and seven votes. After his Gubernatorial term, Gov. M. filled successively the stations of State Senator, President of Internal Improvements, and U. S. Senator. In every position he was called to, he exhibited the most indomitable energy in the performance of his duties, and it will be long before we will again look upon his like—the time-honored race of old-fashioned statesmen, is fast passing away. May their memory be green in the hearts of their patriotic descendants.

COL. JOHN ROWAN.—Col. John Rowan died at his residence in Nelson county on Tuesday morning last—Col. Rowan had many friends in Kentucky, and in all parts of the Union. He died from the effects of a fall received a few days before.

DR. BARKINIDGE'S LETTER.—We give up our first page this week to the publication of Rev. Dr. Barkinidge's letter in reply to the Abolition speech of Hon. Charles Sumner. It is needless for us to call public attention to this able document. It has already attracted much interest by the power of its argument and the soundness of its conclusions, and we presume that but few productions of the day will have a more general reading.
